ESSENTIAL KNOW-HOW GUIDANCE
AND LEADING LEGAL RESEARCH

The combination of Thomson Reuters technology, human expertise and market-leading solutions to help you effectively navigate the implications of Brexit.

Trusted legal know-how

Practical Law's Brexit page hosts a wide range of resources from across all Practical Law practice areas.

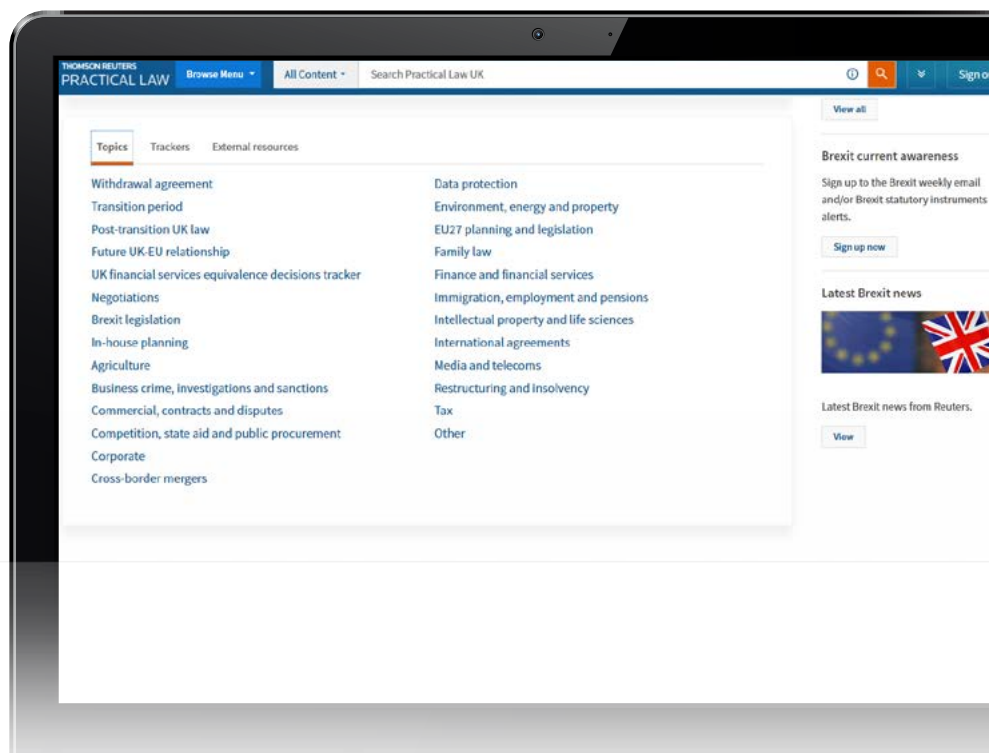

It is regularly updated with the latest legal developments, highlights essential resources, and groups materials under three easy to navigate tabs:

1. Topics collating all Practical Law's Brexit resources into more accessible groupings, reflecting practice areas alongside Brexit-specific content.

2. Trackers providing a unique insight into the latest developments; this includes alerts on statutory instruments and other legislative changes as they are drafted, published and come into force.

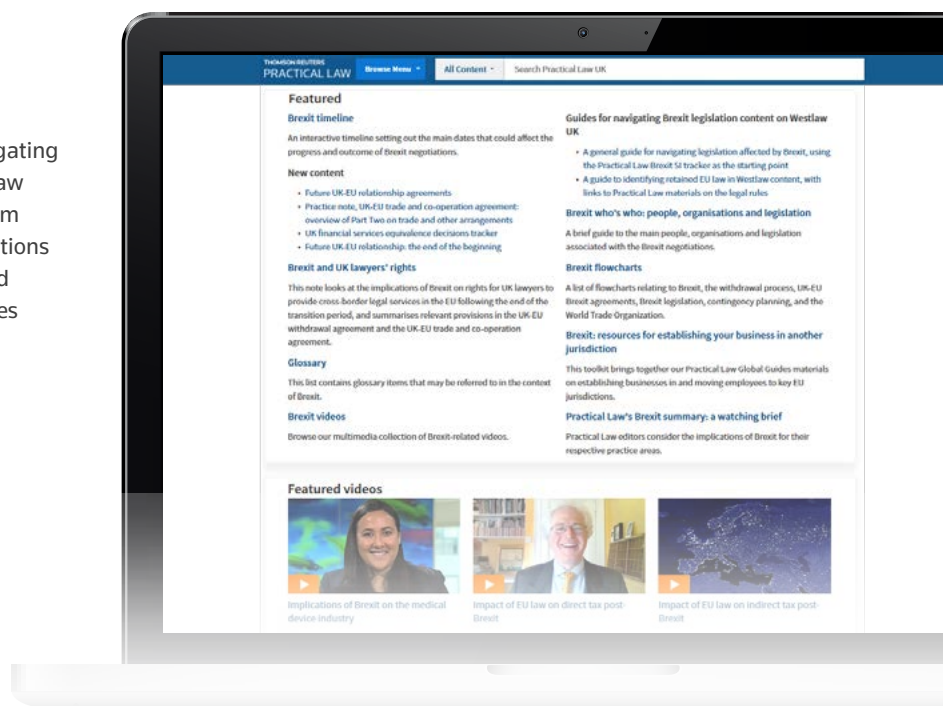

3. External resources including useful links to Brexit-related Acts, agreements, EU institutions and UK government departments.

Practical Law Brexit's Featured resources provides you with an overview of the entire Brexit process.

The Brexit timeline enables you to see each major development from referendum to agreement and beyond.

Other featured resources include Guides for navigating legislation on Westlaw UK, as well as Practical Law videos, where our editors sit down with experts from law firms and organisations to discuss the implications of Brexit on various practice areas. These featured resources enable you to delve deeper into the issues and stay up to date with all the most relevant developments as they happen.

Practical Law also helps you stay up to date with the latest EU developments.

- See all Practical Law practice area content on EU law, as well as EU institutional and legislative developments in one place.
- Enhanced country pages for France, Netherlands, Ireland and Italy, providing extra guidance on conducting cross-border business with ease.
- Access new trade and customs content to guide you through the post-Brexit trade systems.
- Follow the current status of all EU initiatives relevant to your clients or business.

ASK – and see what others are asking

Our Team of experts is available to answer your questions through our innovative online query service and forum, Ask. They can help you find a resource, expand on what they have written or act as a sounding board on tricky legal points. You can also see what your peers are saying about a particular area of law or join in the discussion.

"The Ask service is first class, I couldn't believe how quickly the team responded and the level of detail in their answer."
