2018 enhancement highlights

In consultation with our customers, we have introduced new functionality, developed existing features and delivered a wealth of new content across our portfolio.

Practical Law

FUNCTIONALITY

User interface refresh

A cleaner and more consistent user experience, with more room to view resources.

Expanded resource view

View your resource in full screen mode so you can avoid any distractions.

Search functionality

Further search improvements include adjustable view settings, improved performance and enhanced filtering. You can also run a search across any topic, practice area or Westlaw UK books page saved to your favourites.

Table of contents

Jump to the information you need more quickly with clearer headings and section tracking in the table as you scroll through a resource.

Legal updates date filter

Narrow down your results and find the relevant update using the new date filter.

CONTENT

Scots law resources

Coverage has expanded, with resources designed to give legal professionals working or advising on matters in Scotland clear guidance and a quality-assured head start in their work.

Monthly bulletin

The new bulletin is the one-stop shop that outlines the key developments in a practice area and provides editorially curated commentary on these developments in an easy-to-read format.

Brexit extended coverage

Editors update existing and publish new resources detailing the implications of Brexit for each practice area, ensuring you are fully prepared for the changes ahead.

Brexit Statutory Instruments (SIs)

Practical Law covers the main UK and EU Brexit legal developments. To help you track the SIs published by the government under the EUWA, we have published a new SI page on Practical Law along with the new email alert, tracker document, commentary and Brexit resources.
